

THE VOICE BUSINESS
SPEAK WITH CONFIDENCE

The Theatre of Business Leadership (PTL)

For those who want to master the art of performance on the world stage

Purpose:

"All the world's a stage" for the senior executives of today. You need to be top of your game to present across different types of media, different countries and different cultures. In the Theatre of Business Leadership course you will move into the realm of influencer, persuader and clear sighted visionary. You will master the art of presenting your ideas and thoughts and inspiring your team. Being able to demonstrate emotional intelligence and vocal intelligence is paramount to being understood, as is the ability to communicate confidently and credibly in culturally appropriate ways. The world is looking for leaders who can move with the times and elegantly navigate the many conversations inherent in making their business a success. This workshop is especially useful for executives who deal cross-culturally with international clients and staff.
